

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES FOR USE WITH THE DIOCESAN FRAMEWORK

Some recommended websites

There may be ideas which complement the themes in the framework and which inspire you to try something in addition to or instead of what is suggested. The ideas on the websites change regularly and so it is not possible to recommend particular acts of worship as they may be here today and gone tomorrow!

The Assemblies website

The Bible Reading Fellowship/Barnabas

www.barnabasinschools.org.uk

The Collective Worship Resource from Culham St Gabriel's

www.culham.ac.uk

Time for Assembly

The Stapleford Centre

Some recommended resource books

Many of these are ‘traditional’ favourites which pre-date options on the web. You may have them sitting on your shelves but they contain good quality ideas and approaches, so a quick audit of your worship materials might be beneficial. These books present materials from a Christian perspective which is important for your Church school.

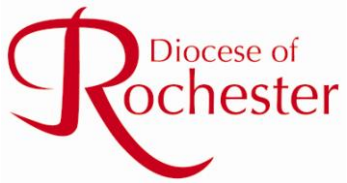

It might be that you are not inspired by particular ideas from the framework or they might not be suitable for the grouping you have on that day.

If so, these books may pick up on the theme for the week but offering something more appropriate for your and your children.

You do not need to go out and buy these in order to deliver the ideas in the framework but you may have ‘hidden resources’ somewhere in school which are worth re-discovering!

The Almost Instant Assembly book
Sue & Chris Govus Kevin Mayhew

Saints and Saintly People
Claire Richards Kevin Mayhew

Year Round Assemblies
Brian Ogden & Jo Dobbs Barnabas

BIBLES*

The Lion Storyteller Bible
Bob Hartman/Susie Poole Lion

The Beginners Bible
Karyn Henley/Dennas Davis Kingsway Publications

Lion First Bible
Pat Alexander Lion

The Barnabas Schools' Bible
Rhona Davies/Marcin Piwowarski Barnabas

*Here is just a small selection. Keep a look out for well written versions of the Bible at pupils' level. It is important to use good quality age appropriate Bibles/Bible stories to make the telling of the events come alive.

You may have some on shelves in school – check before you buy anything new!

SOME ADDITIONAL SUGGESTIONS

The poetry books are needed if you want to encourage questions about ‘big’ questions’ and puzzling things in life in a humorous way – they would also be useful for literacy! More links will be mentioned as the framework is developed.
